Please read the following waiver carefully, sign, and return to Lucky Dog Resort in person, via E-mail (training@bealuckydog.com), or by regular mail with your registration and enrollment form.

Whether I am enrolling my dog in a Lucky Dog reward-based training class, or addressing a serious behavior problem, such as, but not limited to aggression, I understand that dog training classes or private dog training lessons come with an inherent risk. I understand that the following statement will hold true regardless of the training venue, to include, but not limited to, my home, Lucky Dog Resort, or any “off premises” training I may do with my dog and any member of the Lucky Dog Training Team:

I will hold Lucky Dog Resort and Lucky Dog Enterprises, Inc., trainers, training assistants, or employees harmless of any blame, fault, or wrong-doing should myself or my dog, family member, or any other training participant or observer be injured during the course of evaluation or demonstration of dog training techniques, with any Lucky Dog Trainer or training assistant.

I further understand that no child under the age of 10 years will be permitted to handle my dog during a class or private lesson, and that in some instances it is inappropriate for any non-adult to control a dog during training. Determination of ability to physically control any dog will be the responsibility of Lucky Dog trainer or assistant trainer. No child under the age of 16 will be permitted to attend the class without a parent or guardian. I understand that children attending class must be quiet and respectful, or they may be asked to leave the building. I further understand that abusive behavior towards a dog by a handler may be cause to terminate the class or private lesson temporarily, or permanently, with no refund of money due the client, with determination of what constitutes abuse to be made by a Lucky Dog trainer or assistant.

I understand that some dogs are not suited to the class environment and may be referred to another program for evaluation at the discretion of the trainer. Lucky Dog Resort and Lucky Dog Enterprises reserves the right to refuse training to any dog if the trainer determines that the dog causes risk of harm to the trainer, handler, or others. I also understand that no female dog in heat may attend class. I further understand that I must produce paperwork from my veterinarian as proof that my dog has the required vaccines to enroll in the class or evaluation. Any vaccine concerns (titers, exclusions, etc.) will be directed to the trainer and handled on a case-by-case basis. I verify that to the best of my knowledge my dog is healthy and free of contagious disease. Should any Lucky Dog employee have reason to question the health of my dog upon presentation, I understand that I may be asked to remove my dog from the facility, and produce a health certificate from my veterinarian.

I understand that all classes are on a “first-come, first-served” basis, and I should return my paperwork and payment to Lucky Dog as soon as possible to secure my space in class. I also understand that payment for an initial private lesson is due at the time of the lesson, and payment for follow-on appointments are due in advance. I understand it is my responsibility to appear on the correct day and time of the class or private lesson. If I am unsure of the date, time, or location of the class or private lesson, I will call Lucky Dog Resort (719-599-9663) or see the Lucky Dog website at (www.bealuckydog.com). If I am signing up for a private lesson, I understand that I must turn in my enrollment, registration, waiver, and payment at least 72 hours before my appointment, or I will need to reschedule. I understand that I must give 24 hours notice to reschedule my initial private lesson appointment, or I will forfeit 50% of the money paid. I must also give 24 hours notice to reschedule any of my follow-on appointments, or I will forfeit that lesson. It is important to attend all classes scheduled, in particular the first lesson. Should I fail to appear for the first class or private lesson at the designated time, I will forfeit 50% of my total fee. I will be eligible for enrollment in the next available class or will need to reschedule the private lesson. I understand that I must advise the trainer of my intention to withdraw from the class BEFORE LEAVING THE BUILDING ON THE NIGHT OF THE FIRST LESSON. At which time, all learning materials will be returned and I will receive a refund minus a $30.00 administrative fee.

I understand that the extent to which a dog is successfully trained is a function of the interest, time, commitment, consistency, and cooperation of the owner. I acknowledge and agree that there is no guarantee that my dog will achieve the desired level of training, despite the best efforts of the instructor.
